

Are We Making Decisions Or Discoveries?

A talk by Bruce Jeffrey

Did you ever have to make a decision and found yourself wishing the answer could be clearer? Have you found yourself adding up pro's and con's and still not being confident that the decision is a right one?

There is a better way. Bruce Jeffrey, Executive Director at The Principle Foundation, will share a way that will help you make better decisions and feel confident about the decisions you're making. The way may not be exactly what you would expect. But whether you are making decisions as an individual or in a group, he'll show how to get better and better at decision making.
